

This application to finalise Estate Accounts, release balances held and close bank accounts can only be made by the Executor(s) where there is a valid Last Will and Testament (Will), or the legal administrator or Next of Kin where there is not a valid Will. In order to ensure that we are taking instructions from persons authorised to act for the Estate, it is important that the right documents are provided before we can approve any application to release funds.

1. DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

In order to process a request to finalise accounts, we will require the following documents. Please select documents required and attach to this form if not previously provided to MyState Bank. We are unable to process this application without these documents.

Certified copy of the Record of Death/Death Certificate issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths & Marriages; PLUS

Where there is a Will

- Certified copy of the Last Valid Will and Testament; or
- Certified copy of probate with Will Annexed if balance of accounts is $25,000.00 or more as at or after time of death; and
- Certified copy of photo identification of the Executor(s) named in the Will or person(s) named on Probate.

Where there is not a Will

- Proof of relationship of the Next of Kin (e.g. Birth Certificate, Marriage Certificate, domestic partner evidence); or
- Certified copy of Letters of Administration if balance of accounts is $25,000.00 or more as at the time of death; and
- Certified copy of photo identification of the Next of Kin(s) or person(s) named in Letters of Administration.

Our staff at any MyState Bank branch can take copies of your original documents and certify them.

Important: Where there is more than one Executor named on the Will, or where there is more than one legal Next of Kin (e.g. siblings or children), all persons must provide their identification documents and sign this form.

Once you have the above documents as required, you can proceed with completing this form and lodge your request for account closure(s).
